Finlays In Sri Lanka | Finlays Tea Estates Sri Lanka

Hapugastenne Plantations PLC and Udapussellawa Plantations PLC, collectively known as Finlays Tea Estates Sri Lanka, is a subsidiary of James Finlay Ltd in UK.

We operate 26 estates with a spread of over 15,000 ha of land and 15,000 employees.

Finlays have proven excellence in managing tea, rubber, commercial forestry and other crops, producing over 13 million kg of tea, 1 million kg of natural rubber and 500,000 coconut nuts per annum.

We are one of Sri Lankas largest plantation companies, managing over 2,000 ha of commercial forest and 1,000 ha of protected and reserved forest covers.

Our vision is of business and communities thriving together in a future that is environmentally sustainable and socially just.
