

Measures for creating understanding about the project's operations according to the Code of Practice (COP) report related to the community are as follows.

1. poll and suggestions in various fields of the public and stakeholders As appropriate by
 - 1.1. Arrange a team to monitor and take care of environmental quality. and project safety to coordinate and take care of the community with closeness
 - 1.2. Provide knowledge and organize training for employees, communities, and students. and the general public To gain a broad understanding of the Company's projects and operations. in the form of modern clean energy
 - 1.3. Set a budget for assistance and supporting community activities in various areas such as education, culture, traditions, hygiene, and the environment
 - 1.4. Establish water storage within the solar power plant project. and share it with the surrounding community for use in times of need.
 - 1.5. Support hiring full-time employees and temporary employees from community members according to their abilities and potential to create employment Including skill development To achieve sustainable development

In addition to assigning operations and maintenance departments Performance reports must be submitted to the Executive Committee. Company Audit Committee and internal audit department A factory inspection plan has been established. and various projects of the company in the annual audit plan For that purpose It is to ensure that the various operations of the company It has been carried out in accordance with standards, requirements, rules, regulations, including vision guidelines. and mission of the company

Performance results/success indicators

From the company's business results It adheres to the policy of operating with care and sincerity, including seriously taking care of stakeholders from business operations, including shareholders, customers, trading partners, creditors, communities surrounding the project, employees, external organizations, and government agencies. which the person or organization mentioned here It is very important in the business operations of the company. Group of the company has adopted a code of conduct and Sustainable Development Goals to be applied in line with business operations. In 2023, the company has divided operating results into 3 important dimensions: economy, society, and Environmental aspect (Environment) to benefit the community truly social

Economic aspect

- Wind power plant project Chaiyaphum Province

The Cow School project has been continued. To enhance the skills of students or those interested in making livestock To have a stable career This project can persuade the children and grandchildren of people in the community to come back to work in their hometowns. (Chaiyaphum Province) Yes, because there are careers supported within the province. The result of the company's serious and continuous operations. As a result, the Wua School project received the "Pay of the Land" award for social development and quality of life promotion. To develop knowledge in occupations of people in the community as well.

- Solar power plant project Phitsanulok Province

Carry out activities to promote career development for people in the Ma Tong Subdistrict community. Phitsanulok Province By conducting training to develop the potential of personnel of the community enterprise group to be able to make soap. and scented candles Then start production and improve quality. Until it can be sold Create income for people in the community

- Solar power plant project Nakhon Sawan Province

Carrying out the Kai Khai School for Lunch Project at Ban Hua Wai Community School Nakhon Sawan Province Support the construction of egg-laying chicken houses with materials and equipment for raising chickens. Giving 120 laying hens and training to promote knowledge in raising laying hens to students before starting actual practice. As a result of this project, students will have knowledge in raising laying hens. There are guidelines for living a self-reliant life. And the eggs can be consumed to add protein to the school lunch menu. and sell them to generate additional income.

Social aspect

Clean energy activities together with communities surrounding the project The company has organized training and provided knowledge about clean energy in various areas. To enhance awareness of the benefits and gains from access to clean energy. In each project, both solar power plants and wind power plants in various regions of the company An opportunity has been given to outside individuals/agencies. Come to learn and study the production process. and obtaining energy that does not affect the environment