

OUR LOCATION

The Republic of Angola is a country on the West Coast of Africa, whose land is bordered to the north and north-east by the Democratic Republic of Congo, to the east by the Republic of Zambia, and to the south by Namibia. The Atlantic Ocean lies to the west.

- Capital: Luanda
- Area: 1,246,700 km², split into 18 provinces
- Currency: Kwanza
- Official language: Portuguese

Biocom believes in Angola's sustainable growth.

MALANJE

Biocom is located in the Capanda Agro-industrial complex (PAC), in the city of Cacuso, Malanje Province.

This province has two well-known tourist spots and is a frequent destination for the region's population: the Quedas from Kalandula and the Pedras from Pungo Andongo.

Malanje is also home to the Cangandala National Park where the Sable Antelope, Angola's national animal can be found.

