

Stora Enso awarded for sustainability in China

PUBLISHED 24 OCTOBER 2019

Stora Enso's Consumer Board division operations in Guangxi, China, have received several awards for sustainability.

Stora Enso's Consumer Board operations in China, consisting of a consumer board mill in Beihai, eucalyptus plantations in the southern parts of Guangxi, and sales functions, received two awards in the 2019 Global Duty of Care Awards, which recognises companies for their excellence in mitigating health and security risks. Stora Enso was recognised for its efforts in protecting the health and safety of stakeholders working in challenging, extreme, or remote environments, and for ensuring a high standard of care for employees and communities.
