

White Nile Sugar Company (WNSC)

 | Learn about investment opportunities

Home | Our Companies | White Nile Sugar Company (WNSC)

White Nile Sugar Company (WNSC)

 Established in 2003, the company aims to establish and operate an integrated agricultural industrial complex for the production of refined sugar and various by-products, as well as the generation of electric power.

 Eastern bank of the White Nile River, 150 km south of Khartoum - Republic of the Sudan

Contact address

 (+249) 183 220650
 (+249) 183 223650
 Rabee.elhaj@wnsc.sd
 P.O. Box11218, Khartoum

Designed capacity

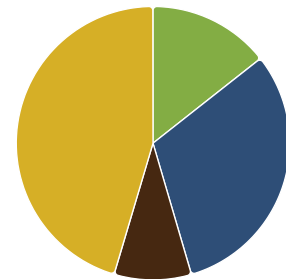

- Refined sugar: 450,000 ton per year
- Molasses: 180,000 MT
- Electricity: 104 MW per hour
- Ethanol: 45 million liters per year
- Animal feed: 100,000 tons per year
- Cash crops: 40,000 tons per year

Capital and shareholders

The total subscribed capital is US$607 million, and shareholders are:

- AAAID: 14.38%
- Kenana Sugar Company: 31.08%
- Government of the Republic of the Sudan: 9.14%
- Other institutions and corporations: 45.40%

AAAID Kenana Sugar Company
Government of the Republic of the Sudan
Other institutions and corporations

Average sales

The company average annual sales amount to SDG 7.5 billion.

Market share

The company market share is estimated at 35% of the local production.

Company products

- White sugar: Granulated white sugar, under the Ballour brand name, in 50 kg bags
- Animal feed
- Ethanol
- Electricity