LPS

Librairie Papeterie du Soudan (Bookseller's and Stationer's of Sudan)

Founded in 1976, this bookshop was the very first firm of the complex. Aware of the desperate shortage of books and office stationery in Mali, Aliou TOMOTA decided to set up a bookseller's and stationer's able to distribute the needed material first in the capital city and then in the other towns in Mali. LPS gradually became the key supplier for not only the private but also for the public sector. As time goes by, the different requirements from the market has allowed the complex to realize the need to manufacture on the spot. Hence the setting up of Graphique Industrie. The range of products sold by LPS are identical to those currently found in this sector : books, pens, folders, office furniture, computers... A Limited liability company with a capital of F CFA 70,000,000.
