

Nigeria: Now, the Resurrecting Palms of Okitipupa

By Oke Epia

Lagos — The Okitipupa Oil Palm Plc., located in Ondo State, was one of the major players during the nation's golden era in agriculture. Like the malaise that brought the nation's agricultural sector to its knees, the company too went comatose. OKE EPIA in this report, however, writes on concerted efforts by the present administration in the state to bring the company back on track

It was an eloquent testimony of the decay that had set into the nation's agricultural sector. Once upon a time, in those good old days, when Nigeria was a leading producer of palm oil in the world, Okitipupa Oil Palm Plc., was a major player in the success story of the nation's booming agriculture sub-sector.
