we appreciate and thank the transportation minister, who has strong a commitment to make Kertajati Airport busier,” said BIJB director Muhammad Singgih in a press statement on Wednesday.

Since Kertajati International Airport opened last year, only a few airlines have been interested in operating from the airport, preferring Husein Sastranegara Airport in Bandung, which is closer to the inner city.

Singgih assured that Kertajati Airport was ready to serve all airlines that wanted to operate from the airport. “The plan could be implemented before Idul Fitri,” he said referring to the Islamic holiday that will fall in early June.
