

Ukrlandfarming / Our company / History

History

2018

Ukrlandfarming recognized as the Best Employer of the Year of media "Power of Money", "Focus" and "BUSINESS"

Ukrlandfarming actively works with the media and reached leading positions in the ranking of the most mentioned agro companies in the information space of Ukraine

Avis factory, which is the part of Avangardco holding, received official permission to export class A table eggs to the European Union

Ukrlandfarming continues negotiations with the National Bank of Ukraine, the Fund for the Guaranteeing of Individual Deposits Regarding Restructuring of Obligations for 10 Years, until 2028

2017/2016

Avangardco IPL succeeds in restructuring its Eurobond.

Avangardco IPL continues its Eurobond restructuring, the Deutsche Bank/Sberbank syndicated facility gets restructured.

amid a worsening macroeconomic situation in the country aggravated by the loss of land and significant assets in Crimea and Eastern Ukraine, Ukrlandfarming embarks on project to streamline its business. The group optimises its operations and financial activities, as well as its personnel. As a result of the exercise, the company's total headcount was reduced from 37 thousand (as of 2014) to 31 thousand (as of 2017).

2015

Avangardco IPL succeeds in restructuring its Eurobond.

2014

Cargill purchases a 5% interest in Ukrlandfarming PLC

2013

Inaugural placement of USD 500 million in Eurobonds by Ukrlandfarming by the Irish Stock Exchange

Ukrlandfarming Group acquired:

2011
2012

Agro-Alpha (crop production, dairy farming),

Avangard (egg production and processing) ,

Olimpeks, Agro-Resource, Zoria, Chernyshevske, and Makon (expansion of land resources and storage capacities).

Trading department established to expand export operations

Ukrlandfarming Group acquired:

2010

Robusta (crop production),

Dakor (crop production, sugar production, livestock farming),

Rise (crop production, sugar production, livestock farming, seeds, storage services; dealing in agricultural equipment, fertilizers and crop protection agents),

Ukrmiaso (beef and leather production).

2010

Avangardco IPL listed using global depositary receipts on the London Stock Exchange (ticker: AVGR).

2008

UKRLANDFARMING PLC incorporated in Cyprus as a public limited company.

2007

Ukrlandfarming Group established (production of crops and livestock farming).