For many years IMC has been proud of its stable and well coordinated team of professionals who have the valuable skills, knowledge and experience.

Our harmonious team totals about 3000 talented and devoted to their business people. The well-coordinated and team work as well as the mutual assistance are the main principles of success of our organization.

People are one of the main values of IMC. Exactly that is why we always strive for creation of such favorable conditions for our employees under which they could feel that they are valued and respected. IMC ensures development of skills, professional growth and comfortable work environment for all its employees. We give everybody wide opportunities and encourage new ideas and development.

We always set the ambitious goals, strive for being the best company in the sector and making a considerable contribution in development of our country.

If you are talented and goal-seeking, if you have experience and professionalism and want to be a member of our team we will be glad to receive your comments, proposals and CV.
