MONGOLIA TO PLANT RICE IN LAOS

» Home page » Mongolia to plant rice in Laos

The Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Mongolia to the Lao People's Democratic Republic (LPDR) T.Janabazar held a meeting with the Deputy Minister of Agriculture and Forestry Dr. Phet Phomphiphak in Vientiane, Laos on March 16, 2012 and talked about enhancing partnership in the fields of the agricultural sector.

In particular, the two sides have agreed upon putting into action the talks concerning Mongolia to grow rice on Laos territory and Lao to operate sheep farming on Mongolian territory. The Deputy Minister and the Ambassador have noted that the visit of the officials from the Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Light Industry of Mongolia headed by L.Bayartulga to Laos on March 10-13 went successfully. During the visit the delegates got familiarized with the agricultural operations in Champasak and Savannakhet provinces of Laos. Moreover, L.Bayartulga, Head of Department of Coordination of Agriculture Policy Implementation of the Ministry of Mongolia and Mintatiph Chauphengsai, Director of the Department of Agriculture of Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry of LPDR have signed a protocol on experimenting to grow organic rice in 500 ha of land in Laos and to grow high yielding varieties of rice in 5 ha of land in 2012.

Furthermore the sides have agreed upon mutually investigating the possibilities to grow coffee, tea, sugar cane, cauthchouc and precious wood for industrial purpose in Laos and expressed opinions on leasing land for business activities in Savan-Seno Special Economic Zone of LPDR.
