► OUR COMPANY

Located in Piura, in northern Peru, Sociedad Agrícola Saturno has 1,200 hectares of prime agricultural land with extraordinary fertile soil, access to pristine water sources, stable sub tropical climate, and proximity to the second busiest port in Peru.

Since 1997 we have continuously invested in assets, technology and know how, to capitalize on these natural advantages, positioning ourselves as a reliable source for excellent quality produce.

Our operation encompass production, packaging, storage and shipping of table grapes, mangos and avocados to markets in Asia, America and Europe.
