Published: 07/16/2012, 3:52:39 PM

The sugar and alcohol factory named Biocom, located in Capanda agro-industrial industrial estate, in Malanje Province, will invest US$110 million, until 2017, according to Angolan news agency ANGOP.

The projects of the factory will be implemented in an area of 32,000 hectares of land and will start functioning in October 2013.

The project manager, Alecio Cantafora, said that currently works have been developed in an area of 1000 hectares, foreseeing to reach 3,000 hectares by March 2013. The purchase of equipment may reach US$85 million to US$90 million.
