At a glance

The Ukrlandfarming Group is the largest Ukrainian vertically integrated agricultural holding company, managing 654 thousand hectares of highly fertile black soil, the largest stock of black soil in the country and 8th largest in the world.

USD 1,889 million
Revenue in 2012
+16%

USD 792 million
EBITDA in 2012
+56%

USD 4,609 million
Assets in 2012
+56%

USD 542 million
Net Income in 2012
+16%

Its major areas of business are

CROP FARMING 38%
Share in company revenues

PRODUCTION OF EGGS AND EGG PRODUCTS 33%
Share in company revenues

SUGAR PRODUCTION 7%
Share in company revenues

LIVESTOCK FARMING AND MEAT PRODUCTION 6%
Share in company revenues

TRADING AND DISTRIBUTION 16%
Share in company revenues

The Group leads the Ukrainian market in all its products except sugar. In 2012 the Group was the second largest producer of sugar in Ukraine.

As the largest agricultural company in Ukraine, the Group operates in 22 out of 24 Ukrainian provinces and in the Autonomous Republic of Crimea. The Group includes AVANGARDCO IPL, the largest egg producing and processing company in Eurasia, which made a successful stock market launch on the London Stock Exchange in 2010.

Oleg Bakhmatyuk, the company CEO, is the beneficiary holder of 95% of the shares in Ukrlandfarming PLC, 5% is owned by Cargill.