In 2014, the Vietnam Rubber Group (VRG) will purchase an additional 11,220 hectares of rubber trees in Cambodia as it strives to gain 100,000 ha in the neighbouring country, according to VRG General Director Tran Ngoc Thuan.

This is part of the group's effort to intensify its rubber cultivation programme in the country.

This year, the two VRG subsidiaries of Tan Bien - Kampongthom and Hoang Anh - Mang Yang K are scheduled to exploit 256 ha of rubber trees.

Last year, the Hoang Anh-Mang Yang K company built a rubber processing plant to purchase and handle latex rubbers of local plantations and enterprises in Cambodia.

Member companies of Tan Bien, Phuoc Hoa, Ba Ria, Chu Se-Kampong Thom, Dong Phu, and Dong Nai - Kratie are deploying the construction of rubber processing plants in a bid to fulfill their rubber targets in 2015 and 2016.

By 2013, the VRG had planted 78,622 ha of rubber [\[...\]](#)
