(VOV) – Vice Mayor of Cambodia's Kampong Thom province, Huon Manit lauded the contributions of Phuoc Hoa-Kampong Thom Rubber Development Co.Ltd to the locality's socio-economic development .

He made the compliments at the company's five-year anniversary of commencing operations held on February 20 at the company's facilities in Kampong Thom.

Since inception the company has employed nearly 1,300 local labourers who earn an average monthly income of US$140.

Working closely with the Cambodian Government , the company has contributed to the generation of jobs, reducing poverty, and promoted the transfer of technological advances to local residents in Cambodia.

The company's director Dang Don Cu said that after five years of implementation, the company has planted nearly 7,600 hectares of rubber, and the plantation of new rubber trees is expected to be completed this year.
