Rabat, August 30th, 2007 (WAM)- A delegation of the Abu Dhabi-based Al Qudra Holding held talks on Thursday with the Mayor of Rabat and other Moroccan officials on means of bolstering business ties between the two countries.

Al Qudra Chairman and Managing Director, Engineer Salah Salem Al Shamsi said the Company was looking forward to consolidating its presence in Morocco. Under memoranda of understanding recently signed with Moroccan counterparts, Al Qudra intends to develop joint ventures for olive plantation and olive oil production as well as real estate investments.
