

Posted by Lucia on Apr 21, 2018

- Photos

Struggles for land, forests and food sovereignty | Bulletin issue 237 – April 2018

- WRM Statements

- Help us to publicize the WRM Bulletin

Download here the full bulletin as pdf This bulletin has articles written by...

- Campaigns »

Read More Subscribe to our Monthly Bulletin and news

- WRM Bulletins »

- Contact

- Links

- Browse by Country »

- Browse by Subject »

- Actions and Campaigns

- Articles from the WRM Bulletin »

- Books and Briefings

- Highlighted Post

- Meetings and Events

- News

- Other Relevant Information

- Uncategorized

- Videos

Highlighted Posts

Congo Basin: The coming storm

Posted on Apr 29, 2018

How secrecy and collusion in industrial agriculture spell disaster for the Congo Basin's rainforests.

Read More

Indonesia: the resistance of the sacred in Bali to the "green revolution" and the tourism industry

Posted on Apr 29, 2018

Systems of community organization rooted in sacred beliefs and concepts guide relations in Bali, Indonesia, and help defy agribusiness and mega-tourism.

Read More

Democratic Republic of Congo: Turning peasant lands once more into oil palm monocultures

Posted on Apr 29, 2018

DRC is following the trend of promoting programmes to 'integrate' peasants with agribusinesses, putting people's control over their lands at risk.

Read More

Brazil: The cerrado and the city of Três Lagoas under the control of the paper industry

Posted on Apr 29, 2018

On how pulp and paper companies are expanding in these territories while neutralizing community resistance in a process in which the population ends up economically and symbolically dependent on the companies.

Search

Read More

Search

- About us
- Statements
- Support WRM

Cameroon: Local people respond to Socapalm's ISO 14001: 2004 Certification

WRM Bulletin

Posted on Apr 29, 2018

- Current Issue

The oil palm company Socapalm in Cameroon plans to renew its ISO 14001 certification, which expired in 2017. We expose the company's attempts to cover up the destruction caused to the communities and the environment

- About the Bulletin

Read More

Subscribe

Receive the WRM bulletin, action alerts and other materials

email address

Subscribe

Privacy Policy

WRM ISSUES

- Communities and forests
- Deforestation
- Monoculture Tree Plantations
- Mercantilization of Nature
- International processes and actors
- International Movement Building

Publications

- Books and Briefings
- Videos
- In other languages

Browse

- By Country
- By Subject
- Español
- Português
- Français

Twitter

 Follow @WorldRainforest

Facebook

World Rainforest Movement
Avenida General María Paz 1615, office 3 - 11400 Montevideo - Uruguay
Phone / Fax: +598 2605 69 43 / E-mail

powered by Forma Estudio